

LAZARO ARBOS – Vocalist, Model, Live Performer

Lazaro Arbos, a Cuban Born Pop Singer, sang his way into the hearts of Americans as the 6th finalist on the 12th Season of American Idol. After guest appearances on Jay Leno, Kelly & Michael, The Today Show, and numerous other television and radio programs, Lazaro toured the country with American Idol's top 10 finalists, performing in more than 30 cities and Canada. Following the tour, he was tapped to perform alongside Frankie Valli and opened for Chaka Khan. He was also a guest judge for Supermodels Unlimited, and appeared in Disney's Magic Kingdom Idol Parade.

In 2016, Lazaro headlined NYC shows featuring Hollywood's most acclaimed actress, Helen Mirren, and Broadway's top leading lady, Kelly O'Hara. Also this year, he proudly sang his new single "Burn Up the Town" during the ABC-TV's broadcast of the 2016 Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D.C.

Recently, Lazaro performed as a guest artist at the 26th Annual Headdress Ball AIDS Fundraiser, the 2015 Chicago Magnificent Mile Parade and the Philadelphia Thanksgiving Day Parade.

Lazaro sings in both English and Spanish and his original music can be found entertaining listeners around the globe on SoundCloud.
